The Upbuilding of a Community

Depends on the amount of money in circulation in that community. Money hid away in bureau drawers, trunks and other places is that much money taken from active circulation in the community. Deposited in the First National Bank it gets right back into circulation, giving you the opportunity to make more money for yourself because of the increased volume of business made possible by increased volume of money in circulation. Commercial and savings accounts solicited.

PROMINENT MEN
IN HENDERSONVILLE.

Mr. J. B. Hockaday, general superintendent of the Southern Express Company, is registered at the Gates. Mr. Hockaday whose home is in Savannah, Ga. will remain in town some little time and expressed himself as being delighted with Hendersonville.

Mr. J. N. Bran, general superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, is also a guest at the Gates.

Mr. Bran, one of the most influential railroad men of the South, is surprised at the growth of this town, of which he is intensely charmed.

Mr. Bran's home in Savannah is one of the most delightful in that Southern city.

Dist. Passenger Agent
Wood in the City

(Thursday's Daily.)
District passenger Agent
Wood, of Southern Railway, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Wood commented on the great number of visitors here and remarked that the second section of No. 9, yesterday, practically unloaded here. Mr.
Wood says the Southern's passenger traffic is being handled in better shape this year than ever before, and thinks all the resorts in the mountains have record-breaking crowds this season.

He notices an increasing tendency on the part of the people to get further back into the mountains, but observes no lessening in the people who prefer the towns.

Mr. Wood left for Lake Tox-away last night.

More Baggages Handled.

Those quick-moving and accommodating employees of the Southern Railway at the depot say there's been more baggage by far handled there this season than ever before.

And they know!
Hendersonville certainly has the largest crowd this season she has ever accommodated.

It is now almost a question of finding accommodations for the multitudes pouring in on every train, the best judges say there are at least 8,000 tourists now here and the top notch will not be reached until next week.

Every train leaving Hendersonville is practically empty.
Everybody seems to want Hendersonville this year.

Parking Space For Sale.

Those who desire to purchase parking space for the Horse Show may do so by calling on Miss Sadie Smathers or Mr. J. D. Wal-pected to be sold before the first day of the show.

This parking space includes automobile spaces also. Many autos are expected from Asheville and Greenville, S. C.

Mortgage Sale.

made in the payment therein pro-

Fruitland Institute Opens.

Fruitland Institute opened Tuesday August 10th, with the largest enrollment at the beginning of the term in the history of the school. The day pupils have come in unusually promptly and both the boy's and girl's home are almost filled with students from this state and South Carolina.

Special exercises were held the first day. The chief feature of the occasion was a most powerful address delivered by Rev. J.
G. Hughes, of Hendersonville, on "Education as a Factor in the foundation of Character." He held the closest attention of his large audience, while in his delightful delivery he made clear what is meant by Education, and what by Character. The various influences of education and school discipline. He proved that self-control is the keynote of character building. Personal contact in school life is also a revelation of personality in itself.
The climax of his speech was spiritual power and influence.

After Rev. Hughes address short practical talks were made by Prof. Shitle, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. D. S.
Pace and Mr. R. M. Prefor.

Dinner was then announced and all present were cordially invited to partake of the bountiful dinner spread on the tables beneath the stately chestnut trees on the green campus. The afternoon was spent in social enjoyment, and just as the sun sank from view behind the mountains the crowd dispersed with the sentiment, "Long live Fruitland Institute," deeply engraved on their hearts.
